

Communication Charter Template

Team Science Workshop

Purpose

This communication charter is a shared agreement describing how our team communicates to support collaboration, efficiency, inclusion, and trust.

1. Team Context

Project name:

Team size:

Institutions involved:

Primary goals of the team:

Duration of collaboration:

2. Roles & Responsibilities:

3. Communication Goals

What do we want our communication to do?

- Stay aligned on goals and progress
- Support collaboration and idea-sharing
- Enable timely decisions
- Foster psychological safety and inclusion
- Reduce confusion and overload
- Other goals:

4. Communication Structures/Processes (meetings, working groups, daily communication, etc.)

5. Communication Channels (specific digital platforms chosen)

For each channel, define its purpose and expected response time.

Email:

Chat (Slack/Teams/etc.):

Meetings:

Shared documents/platforms:

Other:

6. Meetings

Regular meetings (frequency, duration):

Who sets agendas and shares them?

How are notes and action items captured?

Expectations for attendance and preparation:

Meeting norms we agree on:

7. Decision-Making

Decisions made by the full team:

Decisions delegated to individuals or subgroups:

How decisions are documented and shared:

When there is disagreement, we will:

8. SOP's needed and who will lead each SOP

9. Inclusivity, Accessibility, and Respect

Preferred working hours / time zones to be mindful of:

Accessibility needs (meetings, documents, technology):

Norms for respectful dialogue and feedback:

How concerns can be raised if communication is not working:

10. Conflict, Escalation, and Repair

First step if there is a communication breakdown:

When and how issues are escalated:

Who mediates if needed:

11. Review and Revision

How often this charter will be revisited:

How updates are proposed and approved: